

Code Enforcement Board

The Code Enforcement Board consists of seven (7) City residents who volunteer their time to hear and adjudicate cases. They are a quasi-judicial body that can impose fines and issue orders having the force of law. The Board meets the fourth Thursday of every month at 6:30 p.m. except November and December.